VI SIMPOSIO INTERNACIONAL SOBRE RELACIONES ENTRE AMÉRICA LATINA Y ASIA PACÍFICO

*América Latina y Asia en la perspectiva de un panorama
internacional incierto*

The Latin America - Asia Pacific International Symposium is sponsored by the Chair of the Pacific Alliance made up of four universities: Universidad del Pacífico (Peru), Pontificia Universidad Javeriana (Colombia), Universidad Alberto Hurtado (Chile), and Universidad Iberoamericana (México). This event is taking place in its sixth edition and will be held virtually on October 14 and 15, 2021. Therefore, we invite all participants from the academic world and other research networks to present their work and findings.

The Symposium is organized by the Faculty of Business Sciences, the Vice Dean of International Business of the Universidad del Pacífico and the Asia-Pacific Alliance Chair.

The topics that will be analyzed in the Symposium have been divided into four thematic themes:

- ✦ Economy and International Trade
- ✦ International Relations
- ✦ Business internationalization
- ✦ Sustainability

Research proposals can be sent until June 15, 2021, in the format that you can download from the mailing sent. This must contain the title of the presentation, author or authors, institutional affiliation, contact information and abstract of no more than 150 words. Send it to the email alianzapacifico@up.edu.pe

The papers must be original and must not be previously published in magazines, websites or books. They may contain one or more authors. They will have an extension up to 10,000 words. The Academic Committee of the Symposium, made up of representatives of the institutions and co-sponsors, will evaluate the proposals and communicate their admission or not.
