

CfP for the IB Division, ASAC conference 2023 June 3 to 6, 2023, Toronto, Canada

Dear friends,

We would like to share the CfP for the IB Division of ASAC conference. The conference will be hosted by the Ted Rogers School of Management at Toronto Metropolitan University on June 3 to 6, 2023, in Toronto, Canada.

The theme of the 2023 ASAC conference is "Can we find our way?" As we are navigating a complex world — the tail end of the pandemic (hopefully), global demand for sustainability, increasing inequality, and the need to collectively face our history to find the most appropriate and inclusive path forward, we invite you to join us in questioning what we knew in the past, what we see now, and what we can image the new path forward.

We are looking forward to other IB research with relevance to the community. We will accept original papers, work-in-progress/extended abstracts, and proposals for symposiums and workshops. The submission deadline is February 17, 2023. We are planning a potential special issue to include papers that address the conference theme especially, so please do not hesitate to share your research with us.

At the conference, the IB division will issue these awards- the Best Paper Award and the Best Student Paper Award to encourage the participation of the PhD students. In addition, we will also issue a Best Reviewer Award to recognise the effort and service reviewers provide, as the reviewers are the backbone of a successful conference. So please do not hesitate to sign up as a reviewer for us. If you agree to review 2-3 papers for us, please let us know by simply sign up at this page (https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1WcezmGZeucCLtetuqp25k1oDPF0_EUrxum-a3v8z7bA/edit?ts=6396b0a3), or replying to this email: pao.kao@fek.uu.se, or christian.keen@fsa.ulaval.ca.

The rebooted ASAC IB division (after the pandemic) aims to bring both scholarly discussions and hands-on mentorship to the forefront of the conference. We are preparing special panel sessions as well as social events to foster community building. We play a strong emphasis on equality, diversity and inclusivity, and we hope you will join and share these values with us.
